

How to Serve During the 2020 Coronavirus

Your Neighbors

- Use this flyer to give your contact info to any neighbors you haven't met yet.
 - While respecting and abiding by the government's guidelines, we want to still love our neighbors and show up in a time of crisis. The first step to that is introducing yourself.
- Check out these 11 ways to love your neighbor during a pandemic.
- Sign up for NextDoor to stay up to date on neighborhood happenings and offer yourself to those in need.

Alpha Pregnancy Center

- Currently collecting diapers, wipes, formula, baby toiletries, etc.
- You can give these items in two ways:
 - Pick up the items while at the grocery store and drop them off at 301 Main Street, Suite 1B, Reisterstown, MD 21136. Check out their website <http://alpha-pregnancycenter.org/> or give them a call/text 410-833-7793 to find hours and more information about their services.
 - Give online to United and write "COVID Community Impact" in the notes/memo section.

Owings Mills Elementary & High

- Currently collecting grocery store gift cards for families in need.
- You can give these items in two ways:
 - Pick up a gift card or two ranging from $15-$50 while at the grocery store and reach out to Leah, our Community Impact Director, via email: Leah@UnitedChurchMD.org
 - Give online to United and write "COVID Community Impact" in the notes/memo section.

Maryland Food Bank

- Currently looking for volunteers to package food at the warehouse.
- Volunteers ages 13-60 welcome. Volunteers under 18 must be accompanied by adult.
- Learn more or sign up on their website <https://mdfoodbank.org/ways-to-give/volunteer/>

Medical Supplies

- Extra cleaning supplies, gloves, masks? Donate to the hospital, recovery programs, emergency personnel, etc.

Give Blood

- RedCross is currently experiencing a shortage of blood.
- Find your nearest location & set up an appointment online at <https://www.redcross.org/>

Encouraging Others

- Use your social media page to share how you've seen God in action in the last few weeks.
- Write encouraging notes and send them to friends and family.
- Make it a goal to call two friends and/or everyday, and then by the end of the week you will have encouraged ten people with a simple call.
